

DIBELS 2015-16 progress

An important sign of future academic success occurs by the end of 3rd grade, when students struggling with literacy skills are likely to fall behind classmates as they go through middle and high school.

For third grade end of the year score 86 percent of  white students hit the benchmark of early literacy, while 68 percent of  Hispanic children reached it.

