

- Camping on County Property is prohibited without written permission.
- Written permission may be revoked at anytime. Written permission does not entitle you to any claim of ownership.
- A counsel consisting of homeless campers established the following "County Hill Camp" rules that must be complied with at all times. Failure to comply will result in revocation of the written permission and you will have to move off of the hill.
- Camp Hosts have been established to issue written permission, provide guidance and advise and designate the location you will be allowed to camp.
- This area will be patrolled by Sheriff's Office Deputies.

CAMP RULES:

1. Written permission must be displayed in your camp.
2. Camping is only allowed in designated areas.
3. No Fire Pits or camp fires are allowed.
4. Campsite must be clean and trash removed and placed in the dumpster at the rock pile.
5. In addition to keeping your site clean and free of trash, All participants will donate 2 hours a week to improving the cleanliness of the area.
6. Be "BEAR SMART"! There have been bear attacks in the area in the past, keep food in the camp to a minimum. (See Camp Hosts for helpful hints).
7. Keep your camp small, do not cut down trees or bushes.
8. Respect people and their property. Ella Vita Subdivision, Tech Center, Other Campers and trail users.
9. Discharging or displaying weapons is prohibited.
10. Trespassing in others camps or thefts will not be tolerated and may result in criminal action.
11. The use or sell of illegal drugs will not be tolerated and may result in criminal actions.
12. Threats and assaults will not be tolerated and may results in criminal action.
13. Do not destroy or alter any signage.
14. No loud music or noise after dusk.
15. No more than 4 people per campsite.
16. Keep to your own campsite after dark.
17. Hail camps before you approach.
18. Use designated locations for defecating and bury the waste appropriately.
19. WHEN YOU RELOCATE: Remove everything. Do a thorough cleanup of the spot and leave the spot cleaner that when you arrived.